1 report -- would be the number of North Carolina
2 voters who were verified on the second mailer. One
3 just small clarification. I believe you said what I
4 state is "second mail verification to register to 5 vote." The key thing, I think, is the "successfully
6 register to vote" part of it. A small thing but to 7 note, yeah.

8 Q. So here what you're saying, if I'm
9 understanding it, is that there was a 55 percent,
10 approximately, passage rate for those who became 11 verified on the second mailer, because 60 divided by 12 110,000 would be about 55 percent?

13 MS. ABBOTT: Objection.

14 Go ahead.

15 A. 60 divided by 110 is approximately
16 55 percent. Again, I could give you the exact
17 number, but that's -- I don't think anything hinges
18 on the exact number. I think the key thing for my 19 analysis is that but for the second mailer, those
20 60,000 people would not have been successfully
21 registered.

22 Q. Sure. So I'd like to look at paragraph 24
23 of your initial report for a minute.

24 A. Okay.

25 Q. The first sentence you state, "Individuals
